

Tip 30 - The power of good father - figures.

As part of The Fathering Projects involvement with your school, I will be including helpful tips and ideas for all fathers and father – figures. I hope these tips will help, inspire and encourage all fathers and father – figures to be the best that they can be, as all fathers and father – figures are critically important in every child's life. Tips derived from "The little book of tips for fathers and father-figures"

More involved fathers and father – figures = better outcomes for children.

- Being a father - figure is an important role for all me, e.g. uncles, grandparents, teachers, sports coaches, youth leaders and pastors.
- Kids with no father contact can benefit greatly from having a father - figure in their life.
- Intentionally encourage and be a positive influence on your nephews, nieces and your kids friends.
- Take other kids along with yours to the football, camping, dinner or movies.
- Be interested - tell them how special they are.
- Seek out other father - figures for your own kids.

The Fathering Project is not a counselling service; we are seeking to inspire and equip fathers and father - figures to engage with their children.
